The Italians resort to a very simple method when they wish to obliterate the injurious effects of salt air and sunshine after a visit to their villas on the shore of the Adriatic, the Tyrrhenian sea or the lakes. They bathe the face with the white of an egg, well beaten, let it dry on the skin and rinse it off in soft water after fifteen minutes. The treatment is repeated three or four times, and always a night must before retiring.

Chinese Take to Roller Skates.
Roller skating has recently become popular in Hong-Kong.

The August American Magazine is a story number. It contains an amusing love story told in baseball vernacular by George Fitch; a dog story by John A. Moroso; a love story by Lucile Baldwin Van Slyke, a remarkable yarn by Albert Hickman about a drunken man who bragged too much and got "taken down a few pegs"; a story of adventure and gambling by William J. Lockett and Emma McChesney story by Edna Ferber; and a Phoebe and Ernest story by Inez Haynes Gilmore.

One of the attractions of the August American is an astonishing and amusing characterization of Theodore Roosevelt and President Taft written by F. P. Dunne ("Mr. Docley") in The Interpreter's House, in which Mr. Dunne really gives a satisfactory explanation for Roosevelt's enthusiasm about Taft in 1908.

Other important contributions to the number are stories of baseball "fans" by Hugh S. Fullerton, "The First Night Ordeal," a theatrical article by Walter Pritchard Eaton "A Woman and Her Raiment," by Ida M. Tarbell, and the department "Interesting People," in which appear this month sketches and pictures of five men and women whose stories make excellent reading.

Another "General" Killed.
Santiago, July 19.—Gen. Pedro Ivonet, the negro rebel leader, was killed yesterday morning at Nueva Escocia, by government troops.

Chinese Business Methods.
Most of the Chinese business houses are now owned by partnerships, and most partnerships are of large number of persons. The Chinese who has saved $100 local currency will at once invest it in a mercantile business and become a partner.
